PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am a person who derives Joy in making people, helping them attain the needed understanding in life and in godliness to help them discover who they are and fulfil destiny.

I have the food to enrich the minds of people especially teenagers and young adult. I have passion aided by the ability to see minds renewed and transformed.

I have time and my very self to offer, just to see that people live up to Gods knowledge and don't perish in dark minds.

My aim as a pastor is to write facts that pertain to life and godliness in every plain heart I encounter and also erase every mind that has been corrupted with wrong knowledge about life and godliness, and then write correctly on it. This is to the end that, every human I encounter will stand a chance of living a quality Life that will please God, bless humanity and produce Joy in that individual.

My desire is to help people value life by having a sense of appreciation.
